ASTROLOGER'S VIEWS OF THE WAR.

The present encounter between the Hellenic races and the followers of the Ottoman empire is undoubtedly due to the separation of the conjunction of Uranus and Saturn, which occurred on the 6th of January past; the offects of the same will be to undermine the foundation of the latter country.

Turkey forced the issue, and in so doing instituted a fatal move, more so because of the retrograde of Saturn, who, passing out of the domain of the Scorpion, where he has been since November, 1834, again enters the same, thus causing its downfall; the benevolent Jupiter is retrograde as well, and in Virgo, the governing sign of Turkey, both of which receive the affliction of the powerful Mars, who, singularly enough, is the governing planet of Greece, and who will so enthuse the remnant of this ancient race with such warlike spirit that, outnumbered as they are, yet great will be their victory.

The conflict will be sharp, serious and far-reaching in its effects; the planetary aspect of the heavens for the present time indicates that the great powers of the East are entering into a revolution little dreamt of at this present time. The intervention of the great powers will soon be in order; Russia will step forward, ostensibly the mediator, but in reality to add to its already great power, and the division of the famed Empire of the Crescent will be allotted according to his ideas , much to the discomfiture of England. ASTOR, Astrologer.
